

Corcoran and Co does a fantastic job helping non-profits get organized and staying on task. They are the only consultants we have worked with that always deliver. Stefania helped us with a development training that truly engaged the Board and staff and made them feel energized and mission-driven. I highly recommend Corcoran and Co; they are extremely energetic, fun to work with, and they have a great understanding of what non-profits need to be successful in the long term.

Karyn Scott
Founder, Kids in a New Groove